Craggy Range Bar & Grill Closing April 10TH FOR REMODEL

Craggy Range Bar & Grill Looking Forward to New Interior Design

Whitefish, Mont. – April 8, 2016 – Glacier Restaurant Group (GRG) has announced that Craggy Range Bar & Grill will be temporarily closed as of April 10 to remodel the interior space into an updated design.

“We are partnering with Hammerquist Casalegno Construction and CTA Group to create an entirely new restaurant layout that we feel will be a significant elevation to the operational flow of the restaurant as well as to the overall customer experience,” said Brad Ridgeway, GRG president. “In addition to upgrading the atmosphere for our guests, we are also going to spend this time attentively working on adding innovative menu items.”

Sara Straka, Craggy Range general manager, added, “Our team is incredibly excited for the upcoming remodel and new look. We're looking forward to an expanded central bar that will feature sixteen draft beer taps, additional flat screen TVs, pool tables and an upgraded stage area. The renovated Craggy Range will provide our guests with a better space to watch the game, listen to live music, and enjoy a casual family dining experience while maintaining the friendly and energetic culture of our establishment.”

The new and improved Craggy Range Bar & Grill is slated for reopening in early June.
