Craggy Range Bar & Grill Re-opening After Extensive Remodel

Craggy Range Bar & Grill To Reveal New Look and Menu

Whitefish, Mont. – June 6, 2016 – Glacier Restaurant Group (GRG) has announced that Craggy Range Bar & Grill’s grand re-opening will be June 14, 2016 with live music by local favorite John Dunnigan.

“We are excited to reveal Craggy’s new gastropub inspired menu and interior. Hammerquist Casalegno Construction and CTA Group have helped us create an entirely new feel and design that has elevated the operational flow of the restaurant and allowed us to meet and even exceed current industry trends,” said Brad Ridgeway, GRG president.

During the renovation, an historical wall of hand-painted sign art on cinder blocks was revealed. The wall art includes local family names going back three and four generations in Whitefish, including the Goble and Sillaker families. Word on the street has it that the wall is from the old Hanging Tree. The wall now serves as a focal point to the centrally located bar, home to a large flat screen TV which covers an old window cut-out in the center of the historical find.

In addition to the hand-painted sign art, some other unique and edgy additions are the garage style front windows, the longest frost bar in Montana, a railroad foot rail around the bar, sixteen flat screens, including two on the patio, and an upgraded stage area for live music.

Sara Straka, Craggy Range general manager, said, “The expanded central bar and open feel of the entire space will create a fun and interactive experience for watching the game, listening to live music, and enjoying dining with friends and family. We look forward to making dining with Craggy Range Bar & Grill exciting again and know the gastropub fare will be a great addition to the already fantastic dining scene in Whitefish.”

Travis Manning, Regional Manager, added, “The new menu offers a wide range of choices including signature sirloin burgers, street tacos, hand-helds, creative fresh salads, and uniquely prepared specialty dishes like Cubano Sliders, Tso’s Hot Chicken Sandwich, and the Truffle Shuffle Cavatappi to name just a few.”
